BIG LOCAL ASSET

PROSPERITY OF GLENDALE LAUNDRY DEMANDS INCREASED EQUIPMENT

Those who have had occasion to pass the Glendale Laundry on Arden Avenue have discovered that things have been doing in the beautifying of the buildings with new coats of paint which have given them the well dressed appearance that a prosperous business should wear. If these observers have gone inside they have seen even more substantial evidences of progress, for Mr. Hewitt, the proprietor, is a builder in the larger meaning that the word has in the business world. He came to Glendale six years ago because he saw a good future for his business here and ever since his arrival he has been striving to realize his ideals for it. If some men had increased a business thirty per cent. in that time as he has done, they would have said "let well enough alone." Not so Mr. Hewitt, for, as has been said, he is a builder and will always be leading, hence always growing, never standing still.

And so, though it is an unpretentious place, one is not surprised to find a perfection of cleanliness and order, conditions which are sanitary for the garments cleansed and for the workers who handle them, a wealth of light and ventilation, and a healthy, contented-looking lot of employes. They are about forty in number and the majority have been with him for years, because he values efficiency and is willing to pay for it even though he has to compete with laundries in which the scale of wages is lower than he deems just, also because he likes to have the home folks around him and to make the laundry a thoroughly Glendale institution. And so we find him handling a pay roll of $600 a week which finds its way to the butcher, the baker, the merchant, because all the employes live in Glendale and spend their money here. Many of them own homes and are therefore taxpayers.

When it is a question of real business essentials he argues that the best is none too good and so it is not surprising to find the new models in laundry machinery established in the Glendale plant and the latest devices for expediting and simplifying work. Those who have never visited an up-to-date laundry will find our local institution a liberal education if they will inspect it thoroughly beginning with the receiving room where the soiled clothes arrive and are sorted with as rigid regard for quality and kind as the most fastidious home laundress could ask. Each garment bears a safety pin stamped with the number of the patron if it is to be a rough-dry laundering, or if it is to be ironed it is printed with the number of the patron, eliminating the metal tag so destructive to hems. There are a few tubs for the hand-laundering of very delicately colored fabrics, but ninety-five per cent. of the product turned out is "rocked" in perforated cylinder

PRACTICE BREAKFASTS

STUDENTS DEMONSTRATE IN DOMESTIC SCIENCE DEPARTMENT OF UNION HIGH

A series of very interesting demonstrations are in progress in the pretty "bungalow," which is a part of the Domestic Science Department of Glendale Union High School, conducted by Miss Ellen Hanson. During the first half year the girls received instruction in the preparation of breakfast dishes. This term they are preparing breakfasts in turn for five guests, i. e., seven members of the class participate in these instructive functions, one as cook, one as waitress, and five as guests, one of whom is required to act as hostess and display the ability to entertain and look after the comfort of her guests that is expected of a hostess, so it is a lesson in table etiquette and manners as well as in cookery. As the bungalow is equipped with every requisite in the way of napery, china, silver, cut-glass, etc., to make the table perfect in its appointments, these meals are a liberal education.

As the girls are now learning to compound luncheon dishes, a little later in the season they will be giving functions of this sort. Glendalians who have occasion to entertain conservative minded grandparents could give them much to think about by taking them to the High School to visit the Domestic Science, Manual Arts and Art Department which show how great a change has been made in the curriculums of High Schools in the past forty years.

ONE OF MORGAN'S MEN

ONCE A DASHING CAVALIER, NOW A QUIET, SOBER CITIZEN

A tall, slender man with a long, brown beard, a broad-brimmed hat shading a calm, serious face that now and then breaks into a quiet smile. This is a figure often seen on Glendale's streets. Nothing terrifying or striking about him now, but once that figure bestrode a fiery Kentucky thoroughbred and rode knee to knee with a company of young dare-devils where Morgan led.

John H. Morgan was a born soldier, as were many others who fought under the stars and bars, a fierce, headlong fighter, but withal a chivalrous, high-minded foe, who never abused a helpless prisoner. Time has at last brought justice to his memory and many who suffered from his well-planned raids that were carried out in such whirlwind fashion now unite in praising his forbearance toward a beaten foe.

Kentucky was a divided state from the first hint at hostilities in 1861. The governor was intensely rebel, the legislature favored neutrality and voted down a resolution of secession. Morgan started out at once to raise a force of raiders. His home was in Lexington and he attracted to his side many young fellows who were his neighbors and others from nearby counties. Each recruit furnished his own horse and full equipment, their arms at first being double-barreled shot-guns. Only about 40 men composed the force at the start, but additions were made at a rapid rate and by the end of 1861 Morgan commanded a brigade of six regiments. He moved his force with great celerity, always striking at unexpected points, tearing up miles of railroad track, burning rolling stock and stations and destroying millions of dollars worth of property. He kept no prisoners, always paroling his captives.

One of the first to join Morgan was the subject of this sketch, Francis Marion Shumate, of Madison Co., Kentucky, now a citizen of Glendale living at 316 Milford St. He was

BUILD NOW

BUILDING INSPECTOR LOOKS FORWARD TO PERIOD OF GREAT PROSPERITY

Building Inspector L. W. Chobe informs us that since March 1st he has issued permits for new dwellings, additions and improvements amounting to $24,000.00 valuation. This exceeds total for past year to above date. Mr. Chobe says that if others get the building fever as they should (for there is a demand for dwellings), we will soon have a repetition of the "good old times" with us again and everybody will be busy, smiling, and forget the troubles of the past war, the flu and high cost of materials.

Some of the permits issued since March 1st and buildings now under way are:

SON RETURNS

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brown are rejoicing over the return of their son, Everett Omar Brown, from overseas. Mr. Brown is a chief petty naval officer and was working for a commission when the armistice was signed. He enlisted at Mare Island whence he was sent to League Island Navy Yard at Philadelphia where he spent two months before being sent to the highlands of Scotland where he has been with Base Hospital No. 3 for the past eleven and a half months. He arrived in San Francisco from New York last Thursday.

PRESIDENT TO REACH BREST TONIGHT

GENERAL AGREEMENT REACHED THAT RHEINISH PROVINCES WILL BE ORGANIZED INTO BUFFER STATE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Aboard the Transport George Washington, March 13.—Heavy seas today slowed down the transport carrying President Wilson to France, and it will not reach Brest until 11 o'clock tonight.

The President is preparing to plunge into his work immediately. He will leave Brest as soon as the port is reached, traveling on a special train awaiting him.

The first matter to be considered following President Wilson's arrival probably will be the establishment of Germany's western boundary. Little difficulty is expected on this point, as it has been generally agreed that the Rheinish provinces will be organized into a buffer state.

SPARTACIDES ASK FOR ARMISTICE

CAUGHT BETWEEN TWO FIRES, THEY APPEAL TO WAR MINISTER, WHO ASKS UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

London, March 13.—Amsterdam dispatches today said that the Spartacides had been caught between two fires in the Lichtenberg district of Berlin and are evacuating their positions there.

A wireless dispatch from Berlin declares that War Minister Noske, replying to a request of the Spartacides for terms of an armistice, declared that the only conditions would be unconditional surrender, including the surrender of all arms.

PANACEA FOR LABOR PROBLEMS

SENATOR BORAH PROPOSES CO-OPERATIVE OWNERSHIP AS THE KEYNOTE OF SOLUTION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, March 13.—Senator Borah, the next chairman of the Senate Labor Committee, in an interview today declared that American workers must get a share in the industries. He explained that he did not mean that this share should be measured in wages. Borah said that a definite governmental labor program is necessary and that heretofore "we have met exigencies as they have arisen by juggling wages, but we have never gone at the problem in a way to solve it."

He declared co-operation must be the keynote of any relations between capital and labor and that it must be the thought behind any governmental labor policy.

"Co-operation, of course, is impossible until both of those who are to co-operate have an interest in the business," he said. "This must be an interest on the part of workers that goes beyond mere wages. The workers must have an actual share in the industry and this will give them an incentive to co-operate and make them endeavor to do so because such co-operation means their welfare," he said.

DRINK BETRAYED HIM

PROBABILITY THAT OKLAHOMA MURDERER HAS BEEN FOUND IN MAN ARRESTED IN SANTA ANA

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Santa Ana, March 13.—When C. I. Sherman was arrested here last night for drunkenness, a newspaper clipping purporting to tell how a man of the same name murdered S. W. Dow at Ardmore, Oklahoma, was found in his pocket. The Oklahoma authorities were notified and wired back that Sherman was a fugitive from justice.

He was an auto salesman here and formerly was a salesman in Los Angeles.

PRESIDENT WILSON TO MAKE STATEMENT

SECRETARY TUMULTY DECLARES THERE IS NO AMERICAN OR FOREIGN GOVERNMENT CENSORSHIP

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, March 13.—President Wilson's closest advisers believe he will make a public statement soon on the attitude of the American people toward the League of Nations.

Secretary Tumulty today issued a statement denying reports that newspaper dispatches are being censored. He declared there is no American censorship, and added: "I know of no foreign government censorship."

AUTO ACCIDENT NEAR RIVERSIDE

CONGRESSMEN RARIDEN AND KETTNER INJURED WHEN MACHINE OVERTURNS ON BAD GRADE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Riverside, Cal., March 13.—Congressman Daniel Rariden of New York, Mrs. Rariden and Congressman Kettner of San Diego were injured today when their auto overturned on the Box Springs grade. They were members of the congressional naval committee en route to March Field. Congressman Rariden's back was injured, his wife's right arm was hurt, and Congressman Reppner was painfully cut.

PRECIOUS SOUVENIR

SPY GLASSES LOANED BY DR. HENRY R. HARROWER TO GOVERNMENT, ARE RETURNED

Dr. Henry R. Harrower of this city has had returned to him the binoculars he loaned the government in response to an appeal to private citizens for spy glasses because, owing to war conditions it was impossible to obtain them in sufficient numbers to supply army and navy officers and aeronauts. Attached to the glasses is a metal tag stating they were loaned by H. R. Harrower, and also attached to them is a printed slip bearing the following statement:

"These binoculars have been in constant use on board the U. S. S. ANTIGONE (troop transport), from March to December, 1918. They were used by officers in charge of fire control stations and at the five-inch battery to locate enemy submarines.

They were used to observe the U. S. S. President Lincoln after she had been torpedoed by a German U-boat on the morning of 31 May, 1918."

Such a souvenir of war service should be very precious to the doctor knowing that this possession with which he parted was instrumental in making safe the lives of thousands of men carried by the transport on which it was in use. It was an appeal which only patriots would heed as the government offered a compensation of only $1 for the use of the instruments loaned to it in this way, and under the hazards of war could not absolutely guarantee the return.

As these glasses were made in Germany it is a mild revenge upon the Hun to have had them used in protecting life against his atrocities.

A. M. BROOKS IN ITALY

Prof. Alton M. Brooks, who is still in the Y. M. C. A. service in Italy, in a recent letter to his family here, writes that he is in the American Army Hospital in Genoa. His left arm, which was injured in an automobile accident in December, was not quite recovered. He expected to return to Milan soon and continue the educational work until next summer.

TWO ARNETT BOYS DISCHARGED

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Arnett of N. Jackson Street are rejoicing over the news that two of their five sons who were in service, have been discharged. One of the two is Harold, Pharmacist Mate, who was here at Christmas time and who was discharged at New Orleans. He has accepted the offer of a desirable position there and may not be home for some time. Her youngest son, Robert, also in the Navy, will be home Friday of this week. He has been stationed at the Norfolk Naval Station and was sent back to Balboa Park to receive his discharge.

Of the three sons in France, the older one, Claud E., who is First Lieutenant in a Machine Gun Corps, has a wife and a little son whom he has not seen since his early infancy. He is eager to be sent home and his parents are hoping his wishes will be realized as he writes the men of his corps are marking time and doing nothing in particular. One of his brothers over there expects to come home this month, but has no positive assurance he will be sent, the third brother is in a Motor Construction Corps and will probably have to remain as long as any of Uncle Sam's soldiers are retained in France.

A SOLDIER TOURIST

CORP. J. A. WILSON SEES BEST OF FRANCE AND IS REMINDED OF CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Wilson of 119 North Louise Street, have received a wonderfully interesting letter from their son, Corporal J. A. Wilson, describing his travels through Southern France during an eleven-day furlough. It is published herewith for the entertainment of his many friends in Glendale:

Bourges, France,
Feb. 15, 1919,
Sat. Eve.

Dear Mother:—

Well, here it goes to tell you all about our trip.

Guess my last letter was written from Grenoble from which place we were due to leave a week ago today. Instead of waiting until Saturday we shipped out to Pont de Claix where unable to get a hotel we slept in La Gare (station) all night. Awful cold and we were mighty glad to get on the train at 6:35 a. m. Rode to Veynnes where we had dinner, then on to St. Auban and then to Digne. There we stayed all night in a nice hotel and left next morning for Nice. (Just a week ago tonight we sat down to our dinner in the hotel at Digne).

Left Sunday 10:15 on the narrow gauge for Nice. Had a wonderful all-day trip through the Alps. The scenery was wonderful and we all enjoyed the ride so much. In order to escape the M. P.'s at Nice we got off at Madeline, a small station just outside of Nice, and took a street car into the city. Finally secured rooms and then hiked over to the Y. M. C. A.

At Nice, as at all the leave cities in the Rivera they have leased the casinos. At Nice it is on a big pier out over the Med. and it is simply wonderful. Music, shows, dancing, eats, writing-room, game-room and all a fellow could possibly wish for they surely have afforded.

Early Monday took a trip to Monte Carlo where we had beaucoup visitations. The train goes up there in about an hour and it reminded me so much of the Palisades at Santa Monica only the French villas are more attractive nestled away up in the mountains. Wonderful gardens and palms, oranges and all our dear old California flowers. The tram winds along the shore of the Mediterranean as does the train and it is a wonderful trip. Cousin John can probably explain it more in detail.

At Monte Carlo visited the famous baths, the Casino, the Prince's palace, museum, had lunch, bought some cards and then off on train to Mentone from where we hiked across the Italian frontier.

Tuesday we all slept until nearly ten and spent the day seeing that city (Nice). It is a beautiful town, real modern, wonderful hotels and lots of luxuries. Left that night for Antibes where we stayed all night and proceeded on to Cannes next morning. Here we spent the day and I surely enjoyed it all. The Ca-

JOIN COMMUNITY SING

APPEAL TO SUPPORT GLENDALE CHORUS AS TOO PRECIOUS A THING TO LOSE

To the Glendale Evening News:—

Music should be a part of the life of the individual, the home, the community, and the nation.

In its highest function it is a language of the spiritual. We cannot express ourselves in a language with which we are unfamiliar. What wonder then, that our highest aspirations often fail of expression.

Music is the most popular of the Arts, yet not one is more abused. Its high meaning is but little understood, not only by the masses, but even by musical students and teachers. It is used too much as an amusement, as an exhibition of skill and too little as a means of education. It is one of the greatest factors in human civilization and not until people use the Art with a spirit of reverence will it exercise those powers for which it is designed.

The invention of music is recorded in the 4th Chapter of Genesis. Is the creation or origin of any other Art recorded? In 2d Chronicles 5th chapter, and 2d Kings, 3d chapter, we have remarkable demonstrations of the power of music. Throughout Old Testament history music is connected with many important events, but we learn from the New Testament that music is to be used in the Blessed Abode above.

The Bible bids us praise as well as pray. Are there any who excuse

THEY'RE HOME TO ROOST

If ever chickens came home to roost it is now in Berlin, the center of the conspiracy to hatch a world war to force German kultur on free peoples. Accordingly to daily dispatches, the most sanguinary fighting between government forces and the Spartacans, with the most inhuman cruelties practiced on both sides, is taking place there. Prisoners are killed by wholesale, their bodies mutilated and their heads cut off and carried about as trophies. Women vie with the men in fiendish murders. Bombs were rained on buildings and combatants from airplanes, and artillery fire spread destruction on every hand. The city wherein was planned the raids on London and Paris, in which many hundreds of women and children were killed, is now being blown to pieces and all classes of citizens murdered by her own people.

GENERAL PERSHING KNOWS

One of the finest triubutes ever paid to the American soldier was that voiced by General Pershing when called upon for a speech at a luncheon given by the American Club in Paris. This is what he said:

"Whether keeping lonely vigil in the trenches, whether attacking machine gun nests or performing the drudgery of the rear or supplying the front line, each man has done his duty and he has felt he had behind him the support of the whole country. By his courage, his indomitable will, his splendid organization and his tenacity, the American soldier turned impending defeat into overwhelming victory. I drink to the American soldier, than whom there is no better in the world today."

FRIENDLY BOXING BOUTS APPROVED

General Leonard Wood has been appointed as the head of the Army, Navy and Civilian Boxing Commission in New York, and it is thought this will result in a marked revival of this sort of sport. It has long been recognized as legitimate in both army and navy, and as the bouts are generally friendly ones with no suspicion of a mercenary taint and leave no feeling of rancor in the hearts of the combatants, they are held to be entirely unobjectionable.

ALL ABOARD FOR ACROSS THE ATLANTIC

Views are now being shown in the big dalies of the British super-Zeppelin which, it is confidently announced, will transport 12 passengers across the Atlantic without a stop. Accommodations equal to those on Pullman cars will be enjoyed by the passengers.

BEAN GROWERS RELIEVED

The bean growers of the San Fernando Valley, who have watched with concern the steady fall in the price of their product till it reached a figure they claim is far below the cost of production, have at last secured a ruling from Washington that their stocks are to be drawn upon in pro rata quantities for each large shipment abroad. They will receive fair prices in this way.

SENIORITY RULE STILL CONTINUES

Congressman Longworth is still fighting the seniority rule of appointing committee chairmenships as adopted by the caucus of Republicans of the next Congress, claiming, as do many others, that it automatically fixes all chairmanships, even those of the highest importance, with no regard whatever for personal fitness.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION

The United States Civil Service Commission announces an open competitive examination for scientific assistant, for both men and women, on April 22 and 23, 1919, to fill vacancies in the Department of Agriculture, for duty in Washington, D. C., or in the field. The usual salary ranges from $1,200 to $1,400 a year, but persons showing in the examination that they are unusually qualified are occasionally appointed at higher salaries, not to exceed $1,800 a year.

Applicants should at once apply for Form 1312, stating the title of the examination desired, to the Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

67,948 ANIMALS SENT OVERSEAS

In a statement made by the War Department it appears that since the United States entered the war and to January 11, 1919, this government shipped overseas from this country 67,948 animals, which included 5,489 cavalry horses, 33,396 draft horses, 28,088 draft mules, and 975 pack mules. The total number of animals lost en route overseas so far reported is 600 horses and mules, or less than 1 per cent of the total number of animals shipped.

HAIL! KING APPLE!

The apple is the king of fruits in value of crop as well as in the estimation of apple lovers. For the apple crop of 1918 a value of $230,000,000 has been estimated, or nearly three-eights of the value of all fruits.

There is a proposition now before the Peace Congress to internationalize the navigable portion of the Rhine, and also the Kiel canal, making their waters free to ships of all nations, under the control of the League of Nations. Germany is to be allowed to regulate the business affairs of the Kiel canal, however.

STATE AND WORLD NEWS

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

RED BLUFF Cal., March 13.—Land owners of the upper Sacramento Valley are waiting today for the scratch of a pen in Sacramento that may signal the beginning of final preparations for the greatest reclamation project ever launched by the United States government.

The state engineering department is expected to sign the contract which will make available $30,000 for a final survey of the Iron Canyon project. The contract has been taken to Sacramento from Washington by M. A. Beard of the Sacramento Valley Development Assn.

This contract already has been signed by the Department of the Interior in Washington and by the Iron Canyon Project Association. The $30,000 has been contributed in equal parts by the federal government, the Iron Canyon Association and the state, as suggested recently by Secretary of the Interior Lane.

As Lane explained, the $30,000 would be used for checking up an earlier survey and for examining into the foundation and abutments and other important features of the dam site.

The Iron Canyon project would mean the expenditure by the government of upwards $18,000,000 for the erection of a tremendous irrigation scheme covering the Sacramento valley. It would include an immense flood control plan which would make Sacramento Valley floods impossible.

Lane apparently is back of the project as part of his idea for employment of soldiers and as affording land for them. The funds were held up when the filibuster in congress stopped all legislation.

Commenting on the Iron Canyon project recently Lane said, in a letter to Beard:

"Any smaller development would be unwise as it would practically destroy the rare advantages of this location for irrigation, power development and flood control."

TACOMA, Wash., March 13.—Sid Mitchell, much touted welterweight champion of Australia, will go four rounds tonight with Johnny McCarthy of San Francisco, in the main event of the Eagles' smoker.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—The fight at Sacramento over the State Market Commission in a battle between the producers and consumers on the one hand and the vested interests and speculative buyers on the other, according to Harris Weinstock, state market director.

Weinstock made the following statement today to the United Press:

"In the public discussion concerning the State Market Commission, the public is being led to believe that it is a row between Senator Brown of Los Angeles and the State Market Director. This is a mistake. Both individuals are mere incidents. The real issue is between the farmers of California and the general public on the one hand and the vested interests and food speculators on the other.

"The latter are prepared to spend thousands of dollars to kill off the State Market Commission and to cripple, and if possible to destroy, the farmers' co-operative marketing associations in order that these vested interests may again be in a position to exploit the farmers on the one hand and the consumers on the other.

"Just as the issue of the war was not between Emperor Wilhelm and King George of England, but between autocracy and democracy, just so is the issue involving the State Market Commission now before the legislature of California, a battle between the producers and consumers on the one side and the vested interests and speculative buyers on the other.

"Senator Brown in playing directly into the hands of these vested interests and is therefore a dire enemy to the farmers of California and to the welfare of the commonwealth." Weinstock declared further that Senator Brown "would have the farmers again lying helpless, bound hand and foot before their enemies. It is to be hoped that the consumers will not allow themselves to be hoodwinked by Brown's fallacious arguments."

LONG BEACH, Cal., March 13.—But this is going too far. It has been proposed to establish a "moonlight golf" on the Hotel Virginia Country Club course. Plans formulated include a battery of searchlights to light up the course.

LA CANADA

The Pasadena and La Canada Orange Growers' Association has decided to resume shipments and will pack navels and begin shipping in La Canada the last of this week. The La-Canada fruit is fine and as prices are very fair now the growers expect to get a good return. Prospects for the next three or four weeks are said to be much better than they have been.

Mrs. Barnum entertained friends from North Dakota and Altadena with a Japanese tea in her cosy bungalow on Fairview avenue. The guests participating were Mr. Moihn, his wife and mother and other local friends. Tea was served in Mrs. Barnum's spacious sitting room. It is worthy of mention that Mr. Moihn is a vocal soloist of note in evangelical work and his friends hope we may have the pleasure of his services in our valley at some future time.

H. A. La Gross of 601 N. Louise is limping around the premises as the result of quite severe injuries received when his auto overturned, pinning him beneath it.

Lieutenant Eugene Imler of the O. R. C. is a guest in the home of his old college chum, Ensign Samuel Rasmussen, at Kingsbury, in Fresno county.

Mr. and Mrs. Koepke of 1122 South Central Avenue, are having the pleasure of entertaining their son, Dr. Fred Koepke, of Watsonville, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Archer, parents of Mrs. Warren Roberts, have returned from a visit to their son, Dr. Archer, near Banning, and will be with her for several weeks. Dr. Archer is said to be improving.

Mrs. R. M. Jackson of 344 North Maryland was in San Bernardino yesterday in connection with her work with the Southern California Missionary Association. Mr. Jackson is still improving slowly and the family feel very much encouraged.

Mrs. H. H. Wheeler and daughter, Dorthea, of 337 North Cedar Street, this city; H. H. Wheeler and son, Donald, of the Western Water Co. at Taft, were recently suddenly called to Orange by the sad news of the death of H. C. Wheeler, father of H. H. Wheeler.

Harry McCluskey of 232 S. Orange, whose team ran away with him some time ago, throwing him out and breaking one foot, is able to work again at teaming and plowing, though compelled to take frequent rests to ease the pain in the injured foot.

Mrs. Alice G. Bahrenberg of 348 West Park Avenue last week entertained friends from Oklahoma. She is now expecting week-end guests from San Diego, Miss Wilson and Miss May Bahrenberg. Mrs. Bahrenberg of Los Angeles will also be her guest.

Mrs. Fanny D. Shugart and daughter, Mrs. M. Goewey, entertained at dinner at La Ramada for Omaha friends. Covers were laid for Mrs. Hahn, Miss Lillian Hahn, Mrs. DeForest Chapin, Miss Carrie Midgley, hostess and daughter. Decorations and favors were pink and silver.

Headquarters of the Associated Charities organization have just been moved to 114 North Brand Boulevard, where the committee in charge under Mrs. E. S. McKee is endeavoring to bring order out of chaos in the disposal of clothing and other supplies. They report there is considerable local need.

Mrs. Charles Barker of 1415 South Glendale Avenue is rejoicing over the receipt of news that her brother, Dr. Morse, will return to Glendale as soon as he can secure his release from the Michigan Hospital with which he had been connected for years and to which he returned after the war broke out and left it short of staff physicians on account of army enlistments. She says he has had a strenuous life and been doing the work of about three men and the strain is telling on him. Now that medical men are returning from war he hopes to have his place filled and be able to join his sister and rest not later than May.

SOUTH DAKOTA PICNIC

Officers of the South Dakota Association are widely advertising the annual picnic to be held at Bixby Park, Long Beach, next Saturday, luncheon to be served at noon. There will be a brief program in the afternoon, but visiting and renewal of acquaintanceship will be the chief business of the day.

TWO VICTORIES

GLENDALE AND BURBANK TEAMS WIN IN BASKET-BALL GAMES ON LOCAL CAMPUS

A proud and happy bunch of High School students, and some who were not students, straggled home after the two exciting basket-ball games which took place Wednesday afternoon in the gymnasium. The Glendale team played against Franklin High and made a score of 37 to 11. Burbank, which played against South Pasadena, was almost as fortunate, rolling up a score of 27 to 14.

When asked to explain the smashing victory of the team for which he acts as coach, Major Commandant Normal C. Hayhurst declared it was due to the fine team-work of the six boys who represented the school, the line-up being:

Orville Williams, Center,
Russell Tummell and Raymond Fansett, Forward,
Tom and Walter McIvor, Guards,
Francis Powers substituted for Walter McIvor during part of game.

These are all fine players who are accustomed to team-work in football and four of them were on the basketball team last year, all of which helped to make them what they are. Raymond Fansett made more plays than almost any other man on the field and the splendid "guarding" of the McIvor brothers and Francis Powers prevented Franklin from making more than three goals which netted that team six points, the rest of its score being secured on "fouls."

Yesterday's games were the first in a series of elimination contests. Had Glendale been defeated, she would have been "eliminated" and out of the race entirely. Next week on the 19th, her team will play at Alhambra, the winner in the game which took place there yesterday between Alhambra and Monrovia teams. Burbank's team will have to meet the winner in a game played yesterday between Citrus Union of Azusa and the Covina High team.

P. E. O.'S RELIEF WORK

Members of Chapter A. H. of the P. E. O. are to meet Friday at the home of Mrs. Charles Barker on South Glendale Avenue to finish the Belgian Relief Work on which they have been engaged this winter. They expect to tack ten comforters.

After these are completed any further work they do for the Red Cross will be secured from the local organization.

Mr. Bargain Hunter
I need funds for a new enterprise into which I am entering, and wish to sell a portion of my local property, viz:
1. New 7-room house at 332 N. Jackson, with lot 50x150 to alley; garage, shed, everything complete—a very comfortable home. If you wish a wider lot, will sell you a part or all of adjoining lot, upon which is located one of the finest oaks in Southern California. This at a before-the-war price. Might take a lot as part payment.
2. Business lot (25x110 to alley) on Brand Boulevard next to the Chaffee store building. Mr. Spickerman's office is on this lot. This is perhaps the most valuable unimproved business lot in Glendale. Would rent immediately if improved with a store building. Such a lot in Pasadena would sell for ten times what I am asking for it. Destined to grow rapidly in value.
3. Beautiful lot at N. W. corner of Kenwood and Lexington Drive (First Street), 50x150 to alley. Handsome trees well started. Has ornamental lights and street work all paid for. Exceptionally desirable.
4. Lots on Jackson between Lexington and Wilson (First and Second). If you want a lot 50, 60 or 75 feet wide, I can accommodate you.

Mrs. Mary E. Diederich, wife of Peter Diederich, foreman of the Public Service Department of Glendale, passed away this (Thursday) morning, March 13, 1919, at 11 o'clock.

She was 36 years of age, was a native of Ireland, and had resided in this city for eight years. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made, but will be in charge of L. G. Scovern Co.

RED CROSS WORK

Of the new allotment of garments made to the Glendale Red Cross Chapter, the night gowns have all been taken out by workers. There are still plenty of suits for boys of eight to ten years, however, consisting of blouses and pants, which are of easy manufacture and which Mrs. Jodon, head of the department, is anxious to put out.

GRAND VIEW BECOMES GLENDALE

The official certificate of the California Secretary of State has reached the Glendale City Hall certifying to the annexation of the Grand View District to the City of Glendale by due process of law, said annexation effective March 11th. Grand View is therefore one with Glendale and a most welcome addition.

FIRST AID CLASS FREE

All persons interested in the formation of a First Aid class are requested to call at office headquarters of the Glendale Red Cross Chapter on Brand Boulevard. A class is soon to be formed under the instruction of Dr. Boyer and no charge will be made except 35c for manual or instruction book, and 50c for certificate sent from Washington to students who successfully pass the examination given at the close of the course.

INCOME TAX ASSISTANT

The representative of John P. Carter, Collector of Internal Revenue for this district, who has been in Glendale yesterday and today at the City Hall for the purpose of assisting inquirers who wanted help in filling out income tax statements, has been somewhat disappointed over the lack of demand for his services. About 12 taxpayers called upon him yesterday and up to 11 today about six had made their appearance. This is his last day here.

BIRTHDAY OF FIRST WOMAN MISSIONARY

Friday afternoon the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Central Avenue Methodist Church will hold a birthday social at the home of Mrs. William Crawford, 800 Central Avenue, to observe the natal day of Miss Isabel Thoburn, the first woman missionary who was sent to the mission field in India 50 years ago. She has been dead for a number of years, but her good work survives and her memory is green in the hearts of all who have the missionary spirit. At the Friday gathering, Mrs. Emily L. Harvey will be the speaker of the afternoon and there will be an exhibition of Indian curios. Birthday cakes will feature the refreshments and everybody interested is invited.

WEATHER FORECAST: Rain tonight and Friday.

TRACK MEETS

Next Tuesday there will be a track meet on the Glendale field between representatives of Glendale and Hollywood High Schools, and the following Friday, March 21st, the local team will go to South Pasadena for a track meet.

All persons who have been residents of Kansas are invited to attend the annual picnic reunion which will be held in Sycamore Grove Saturday, March 22, 1919. Coffee will be served free to all who buy badges. County registers can be found at headquarters. There is a special invitation for soldier boys. The program will open at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bryson of San Diego were guests of Mrs. S. C. Charles of 3529 Perlita Avenue in the Atwater Tract, Monday.

washers surrounded with a jacket containing boiling suds which filters through the clothes making them beautifully white.

But a more wonderful machine is the wringer which is not a wringer but a centrifugal machine operating much as the cream separator works. In a sieve-like receptacle which revolves at the rate of 1400 revolutions a minute the wet clothes are placed and every superfluous drop of water is thrown off leaving them merely damp, and ready for the huge rollers on which the flat work is pressed, or for the "tumbler." This is an enormous and very expensive new drying machine in which the garments are lightly tossed in hot air, coming out beautifully soft and fluffy. The impressive feature of the entire process is the fact that there is a minimum of handling and no chance for tearing unless a garment is a wreck when it comes or an operator is deliberately rough. That may happen, Mr. Hewitt says, but such a worker does not long remain. For every process there is a machine and when one contemplates the many "mechanical hands" through which a collar passes from the dryer and dampener through the rollers, shapers and polishers one wonders how it can be handled for the price.

The newest device which Mr. Hewitt has installed and one of which he can be proud with reason, is the system of sorting and distributing the rough-dry wash. Into a small room on a floor raised about six feet above the main one, the garments are brought after being laundered and dumped into a shallow bin. Opposite the bin is a series of numbered cubby-holes which are really chutes descending to the main floor. Into these chutes the sorter tosses the garments according to the number on the safety pin each bears. The wrappers then empty each chute and make a separate bundle of each and there is no confusion nor duplication of work. As they pass through the hands of the bundle wrappers the safety pins are removed and placed in small portable metal racks prvided for each number.

The majority of the workers are women and their forewoman is Miss Inglish, who by reason of four years of efficient service there is a prime factor in the institution.

Demands of the work room gradually encroached upon the business end of the establishment until the office was driven up-stairs. There in pleasant quarters two right hand assistants aid Mr. Hewett in the accounting department, Miss Burson, who operates the addressograph, and Miss Holm, the book-keeper, who when introduced, proudly exhibited a kodak picture just received from her nephew, Herbert Baisley, a flyer with the American forces in France and a splendid specimen. Mr. Hewitt was no less interested, for he is the good friend and comrade of his employes. Once a year the laundry shuts down and the whole force from head to the most humble employe goes off for a picnic and general good time together. Every day the girls have a picnic lunch at noon at the tables provided under the trees in the laundry yard.

Besides the investment in labor and machinery there are big sums tied up in stocks of wrapping paper which must be ordered in quantity, and still more money in automobiles of which eight are in use.

In Mr. Hewitt's eyes it is but the beginning for he is a man of vision and foresees the time when Glendale will have a population of 25,000 and when its laundry will be proportionate to the town it serves.

He has been solicited to join the laundry trust, but the call offers no temptation. He prefers to make and keep his business, the "Glendale Laundry," free from any entangling alliances which might keep it from realizing the bright future he sees for it as a thoroughly local asset of the community making and spending its money here.

He is delighted to have visitors and what he has to show is well worth seeing.

A SOLDIER TOURIST

sino there is the most aristocratic one in all of France and the town is a fairly good city. Enjoyed a fine bath there, not sea-water but on a pier out over the ocean.

Wednesday, left Cannes at 11:40, passed through Marseilles at 4 a. m. and arrived at Lyons at noon and finally at Dijon at 5:30 p. m. Got to see a little of the town and left at 12:00 Friday midnight on a slow American train. Passed Nevers at 11:30 Friday and arrived here in Bourges yesterday at 1:30 p. m.

Needless to say we had a wonderful trip. Just saw oodles of wonderful places and on the go all the time. Mighty tired at times, cold in some of our train rides but we got to see the best of France.

I have a lot of postals and just as soon as I get caught up a bit in letter writing will mail them.

Cousin John can follow our trip on the map and the postals will help display some of the beauties.

Forgto to tell you that just before I left Grenoble Mr. Burnett, the Y. M. C. A. man I met, took me out to dinner.

Had wonderful weather and a mighty fine trip.

All for this time.

With love,

in all the battles participated in by Morgan's raiders and was so reliable and trustworthy and so sure to always "get there" that he was chosen on many a difficult enterprise. It was in the summer of 1863 that Morgan planned his raid through Kentucky that led to his capture. He attacked the Union forces at Green River, Ky., and was badly defeated, losing many men. Here it was that young Shumate rescued Lieut. Tribble, who was bleeding to death from a wound in one leg, carrying him on his back, through a hail of bullets, to safety, then binding his wound in such a manner as to stop the bleeding. That lieutenant idolizes Mr. Shumate to this day and never tires of telling of the exploit. Mr. Shumate's captain was killed and the lieutenants disabled. He was promoted from the ranks to the captaincy of his company, but was never commissioned as Morgan's raiders were soon annihilated. Pursued north through Kentucky, he conceived the daring plan of invading the north, so crossed into Indiana at Brandenburg. The militia arose and he was kept on the run through Indiana, into Ohio and finally captured at Cheshire as he was trying to cross the Ohio River into Kentucky. Morgan was imprisoned at Columbus, but escaped a few weeks later and returned to Kentucky, but was killed in seeking to escape from his pursuers. Mr. Shumate was one of the men sent to Camp Douglass, Chicago. Here he won the favor of a Canadian, who had joined the Union Army from pure love of fighting, and was assisted by him to escape, in company with a comrade. He planned the escape some time before, but needed some money to enable him to accomplish it. So he gave what little he had to a comrade who was ready to make the attempt and who promised to see his people when he got back to Kentucky and have them send him a pair of boots in one heel of which should be concealed some money. The comrade escaped and in a few weeks the boots came and the money was found. The Canadian arranged the escape and Mr. Shumate and his "buddy" were outside the walls. They took a train in the Chicago union depot for Macomb, Ill., where lived a sister of Mr. Shumate. She furnished him new clothing and urged him to stay with her till the end of the war, saying: "We are all Copperheads here and you will not be molested." But his heart longed for the old Kentucky home so he was supplied with money by his sister, took a train for Cincinnati and then worked his way down through Kentucky to his home. He saw no further service and in 1866 came across the plains and mountains behind a mule team to California. There was an attraction back there in Kentucky, however, so he returned shortly and was married. He settled down on the old farm and it was not until a few years ago that he came back to Sunny California with the bride of his youth to spend their remaining days.

In all the fierce battling of the three years of service Mr. Shumate never received a wound. Bullets pierced his clothes and one plowed through his hair, burning the skin but drawing no blood.

He was named for Francis Marion, the partisan ranger of Revolutionary fame, and some of Marion's spirit seemed to animate him to join the raider partisan of a later day.

JOIN COMMUNITY SING

themselves from singing by saying: "I am musically uneducated, I cannot sing." Would you refuse to pray because you are not a scholar, and are unable to use the best language? God hears the humblest prayer of the humblest man and that prayer may be far more effective than hundreds of petitions offered by those who know the use of elegant language. So God will hear your songs of praise, be they patriotic, be they religious, be they songs of earthly joy, be they ever so humble, for God looks to the heart first and then to the voice.

So let us accept music as a most precious gift; let us study and sing with diligence, that we may catch and drink in the spirit of love which it breathes, which is of God and leads to God.

One Who Loves Music and One Who Is Grateful for the "Community Sing."
